A major step was done in the European Higher Education towards harmonisation and internationalisation with the Bologna process (1999). EMUNI Conferences on Higher Education aim to contribute to the achievement of the Cairo Declaration (2007) goals and strengthen the process of internationalisation and harmonisation in the field of Higher Education and Research in the Euro-Mediterranean region.

The 3rd EMUNI Conference on Higher Education and Research will focus on Entrepreneurial learning and the role of universities. Euro-Mediterranean higher education and research institutions are getting more and more aware of the crucial role of entrepreneurial education and academic cooperation with the enterprise sector as well as the crucial role of universities in the promotion of intercultural dialogue in business. The Union for the Mediterranean has recognised the importance of this field by placing the Mediterranean Business Development Initiative among the six priorities of the Union.

CONFERENCE SUBJECT AREAS

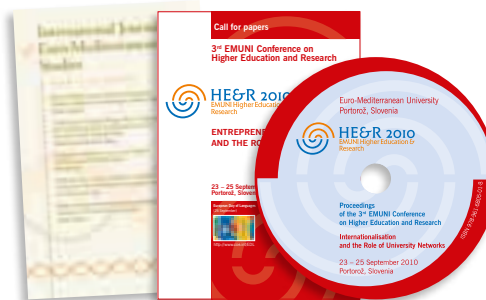

- University/Enterprise Cooperation
- University Fund Raising and EU Projects
- The Role of Entrepreneurial Education in the Development of Priorities of the Euro-Mediterranean

PUBLISHING / CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS AND IJEMS

HE&R 2010 Conference Proceedings will publish only full length papers, subject to a double-blind revision process. Authors of the best papers presented at the conference will be invited to submit their contributions to the International Journal of Euro-Mediterranean Studies and other relevant international journals.

We are looking for a co-organiser of the 4th EMUNI Conference. The co-organiser has to be a partner institution of the Euro-Mediterranean University. The conference will be held in Slovenia from 22 to 24 September 2011.
