

Program Name	Program Description	Language of Instruction	Prog Length	Starting Date	Career Opportunities	Target Student Population	Note
Holocaust Studies	The M.A. program in Holocaust Studies is aimed at training Holocaust scholars and providing them with a well-rounded, multidisciplinary curriculum that includes essential languages, diverse methodologies and research skills, courses in history, social psychology, anthropology, literature, international law and genocide. A unique feature of the program is cooperation with museums and archives of the Holocaust period in Israel and abroad. Students will conduct guided research in these archives based on primary sources and acquire expertise in writing academic research papers. www.holocaust-center.haifa.ac.il  graduate@mail.uhaifa.org	English	1 year	March, 2012	Government, Research in Archives	Open to all	Includes field work, research