MA in Peace & Confliction Management Studies	Exceptional students looking to make a difference in the world are invited to use Israel as their living classroom in the innovative Master's Degree Program in Peace and Conflict Management Studies. This full-degree program, taught in English, combines an in-depth understanding of theory with applications from a regional and international perspective. Students will investigate ethno-national, cultural, and religious conflicts in deeply-divided societies. They will study and evaluate different approaches to conflict management and peace making, while immersing themselves in a region that offers a great deal of relevant real-life case studies. www.peace-and-conflict-studies.org graduate@mail.uhaifa.org	English	1 year	March, 2012	Government NGO	BA in Political Science, International Studies, Government	Requires taking Hebrew or Arabic
