Summer School "Management in Higher Education"

Portorož, Slovenia, 16 September

Between 16 and 30 September 2009 the course Management in Higher Education will be held at EMUNI as part of the Second Euro-Mediterranean Summer School. The course will be attended by 8 to 10 students from different countries (Moldova, Italy, Tunisia, Morocco, Turkey, Slovenia) and professors from Slovenia and abroad.

As part of the summer school different events will be organised: official opening, a round table "Challenges in Higher Education", seminars "Strategic Management in Higher Education" and "E-learning in Higher Education".

The official closure of the summer school will take place on 30 September, when the participants will receive attendance certificates.

With this summer school the implementation of the 2nd EMUNI Euro-Mediterranean Summer School 2009 ended.

The total of seven summer schools were delivered in four countries (Belgium, Greece, Italy and Slovenia) and were attended by approximately 90 students. The topics of the summer schools encompassed different areas, e.g. Tradition and New Creativity in the Performing Arts, European Union Law and Policy on Immigration and Asylum, Linguistic Mediation and Intercultural Dialogue in the Euro-Mediterranean Basin, Local Administration and Human Development and Local Administration and Human Development.
